INDIGENT DEFENDANT'S MOTION FOR CJA APPELLATE COUNSEL

Now comes defendant, Julio Carrion Santiago, in the above-entitled matter, and, based on his averring under pain and penalty of perjury that he is indigent and does not have money or liquid assets to retain counsel, moves this Honorable Court to assign a Boston area law firm from the CJA list, such as Choate, Hall & Stewart Attorney Diana Lloyd; Foley-Hoag Attorney Martin Murphy or Attorney Sheila Walter Sawyer; Goodwin-Procter Attorney Joseph Savage or Attorney Roberto Bracerias; or Cunha & Holcomb Attorney John Cunha, not only for direct appeal but also for filing a 28 USC 2255 habeas corpus petition raising trial counsel's failure to advise as to the right to testify, failure to prepare to testify and telling the defendant not to testify in his own defense, Gallego V. United States, 174 F3d 1196, 1198-1199 (11th Cir 1999), and ineffective trial counsel's refusal to prepare and present a full defense and coverup n.1/.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED,
